Contact: Rob Livick
Interim Public Services Director
(805) 772-6261

The City of Morro Bay has engaged a studio of graduate students in Cal Poly's City & Regional Planning department to work with the community to generate a plan for enhancing the "Downtown" commercial district. A series of public workshops will be held to engage the community in an exploration of ideas and possibilities for the Morro Bay Boulevard and Main Street area.

You are invited to participate...

Wednesday, April 14, 2010
Morro Bay Community Center Multipurpose Room
1001 Kennedy Way
5-6 p.m. Walking Tour of Downtown District
6-8 p.m. Interactive Community Workshop I

Wednesday, April 28, 2010
Morro Bay Community Center
1001 Kennedy Way
6-8 p.m. Interactive Community Workshop II

All are invited to share their thoughts about this important area of Morro Bay. For more information, contact: Morro Bay Planning Commissioner Gerry Luhr (805) 440-9537, Morro Bay City Councilmember Noah Smukler (805) 772-7668 or visit http://planning.calpoly.edu/projects/553-02_s10_morrobay.html.
